

Prelocate North Network.

- a premium network for sustainable relocations

The competition for talents is fierce. For your company to become a winners in the global competition you have to be an employer who best take care of the individual's entire life situation. In order to attract and retain employees, and create recruitments that are sustainable over time, it is necessary to take into account accompanying partners and family.

The Prelocate North Network supports, coordinates and guides accompanying partners in professional and social contexts by, among other things, pointing out the opportunities in the labor market, giving them the conditions to broaden their personal networks, discover Swedish culture and integrate into their new hometown. All in the aim of make them settle, thrive – and stay.

The network gives...

...members the best possible conditions to thrive. By gaining access to the right tools, resources and channels, new opportunities opens up.

The network makes...

... northern Sweden a sustainable and attractive place to work and live in for global talents and their families.
